FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Family Violence Prevention Center to hold “An Evening of Celebration & Hope”

XENIA, Ohio – June 12, 2008 – The Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County is holding an Evening of Celebration & Hope event to CELEBRATE our success so far on our reaching the $25,000 Morgan Family Foundation Challenge Grant and to bring HOPE to the lives of our community members who want to create a Violence Free Future for their family. This exclusive event will be held and hosted by Fleming’s Prime Steakhouse and Wine Bar at The Greene Town Center on Friday, June 13th beginning at 6:00pm.

This elegant evening will include a 4 course meal, served with champagne/wine with each course, a silent auction and an inspirational video presentation to showcase client successes of achieving violence free futures. At Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County we believe that CHANGE, CHOICE and ENERGY lights the path to fulfilling the FVPC’s vision of Violence Free Futures. Together, working as a community, we can positively impact one family at a time.

Seating for this exclusive event is limited to 72 guests. For more information, sponsorship opportunities or ticket information, please contact the Family Violence Prevention Center office at 937-376-8526 or 937-426-6535.
