FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Benefit at The Dublin Pub for Domestic Violence Awareness

XENIA, Ohio – May 26, 2009 – The Family Violence Prevention Center, together with Artemis House, is hosting a fundraising event at The Dublin Pub on Friday, May 29, 2009 beginning at 6pm. There will be good food and fun – and all proceeds will benefit a very worthy cause, combating domestic violence.

Tickets are available for $25 both in advance and at the door and include an authentic Irish Dublin Pub dinner with dessert and great music by “Corned Beef & Curry.” In addition, all attendees will get an opportunity to meet Jane Boucher, author of the new book, Escaping Domestic Abuse...How Women Get Out and Stay Out (see the flyer below for event details).

For more information or to purchase your ticket, please contact Cheryl Hainey, Development Specialist, Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County at 937-426-6535 ext.17 or cheryl.hainey@violencefreefutures.org.

GET HELP

If you are a victim of domestic violence or know someone that is, please contact your local police department, or the Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County. Please do not close your eyes to the violence. If you believe that the abuse will stop without help, you're wrong. Statistics show that over time the abuse gets worse.

ABOUT FVPC

Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County has a comprehensive range of services to help protect victims and provide the support services necessary to rebuild their lives through our four prong approach of Prevention, Safe Housing, Intervention and Outreach. Broadly, those services include a 24-Hour Crisis Hotline, safe housing, children and youth services, community advocacy, counseling, education and training. The mission of the Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County is: “We light the path to living violence free by responding, supporting, and providing safe housing to victims of family violence; by informing Greene County citizens of the impact of family violence; and by revealing ways to prevent and overcome its consequences.”

Our Agency Core Values are: Respect, Integrity and Compassion and our Client-Centered Core Values are: Independence, Courage and Strength. Each day the staff at FVPC is dedicated to its vision of Violence Free Futures.

FVPC is enhancing the quality of life within the surrounding area and with the generous contributions from individuals, businesses, corporations, foundations, government agencies, and local organizations have made it possible for the Center to earn the gratitude and respect of the citizens it serves. We humbly thank you for your contributions, and we encourage your continued support. If you would like to support FVPC with a monetary or in-kind donation please log on to www.violencefreefutures.org and click “DONATE NOW.” FVPC is a United Way Partner Agency, a contract agency with the Mental Health & Recovery Board of Greene County and is accredited by the Council on Accreditation.
