FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Congressman Steve Austria to make special presentation at Domestic Violence Awareness Month Candlelight Vigil

XENIA, Ohio – Oct. 2, 2009 – Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County (FVPC) will be hosting its annual Candlelight Vigil for Domestic Violence Awareness on Monday, October 5, 2009 at 6:00pm on the West steps of the Greene County Courthouse.

FVPC is pleased to announce that the Honorable Steve Austria, Congressman of the 7th District of the United States House of Representatives will be in attendance and will be making a special presentation to the Center. In addition, State Representative Robert Hackett is confirmed to attend as well as State Senator Chris Widener (pending schedule conflicts).

The vigil will be held to raise awareness of domestic violence here in Greene County. The program will include vocal music, readings and poems written by survivors of domestic violence, as well as other special presentations. The entire community is invited to attend.
