FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Family Violence Prevention Center to hold Family Fun Day and Open House

XENIA, Ohio – May 28, 2008 – The Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County will be hosting its 1st Family Fun Day and Open House on Friday, June 6th from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Center featuring Heater from the Dayton Dragons between 3pm and 4:30pm. The Open House is being held in an effort to raise community awareness about the Family Violence Prevention Center and its community based programs and services, expose the Center to perspective clients and to enjoy the day with lots of fun activities! The open house will also include guided tours of the Center at 1pm, 2pm, and 4pm.

In addition to the Open House, Family Fun Day will be comprised of several activities for the entire family to include: informational booths, activities for the kids, corn hole, balloon animals, face painting, music and lots more. Food will be served between 1 pm and 4 pm free of charge; however, donations will be accepted to help support FVPCs Domestic Violence Awareness Month Activities which will be held throughout the month of October. We will be serving grilled hot dogs, fresh popcorn and refreshing lemonade. A volunteer table will be available for those individuals who would like to sign up to volunteer with FVPC and share your time, skills and talents with community members who need our support.

Please contact the Family Violence Prevention Center of Greene County with questions at (937) 376-8526 or (937) 426-6535.
